

Donor Privacy Policy

Acadiana Legal Service Corporation respects the privacy of our donors. This is our policy to ensure that your information will not be shared with a third party.

Overview

We will only use your contact information (e-mail, phone number and address) for the following purposes:

- Send you any required receipts for donations
- Thank you for your donation
- Let you know about upcoming fundraisers or other upcoming events
- Our own internal analysis and record keeping
- Any required reports to relevant U.S. and State agencies (reports are not for public inspection)

No Sharing of Personal Information

We will not share, sell, or rent your information to other organizations. Your identity will be kept confidential. We will not publicly announce any donation without your written permission.

Financial Information

We limit who can see your information to those people on our staff who need it to process the information about that donation. None of it is given to any person, organization or group who does not need access to it.

We only use online payment processing services with world class security and strong reputations. We do not store or have access to your credit card information, bank account numbers, or other account data sent to those processing services.
